

Profession formula

“I, Sister N.,
For the love of the Triune God, in my desire to live a life more aligned with the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ,
in the face of the Holy Church, before Siostra Starsza N. (or Sister N. – Delegate of the Siostra Starsza), I vow to God Almighty: chastity, poverty, and obedience for one year, in line with the Constitution of the Congregation of Albertine Sisters Serving the Poor.

I give myself with all my heart to the religious Family founded by St. Brother Albert, so that with the grace of the Holy Spirit through constant prayer and penance as well as sacrificial service for the poor, abandoned, and afflicted, I may achieve perfect love and glorify the Most Holy Trinity forever.

For the grace and the divine assistance to keep these sacred vows faithfully, I humbly ask Jesus, the most Blessed Virgin Mary,
our Father St. Francis, St. Brother Albert, and all the saints.”

SUPERIOR:

And I, in the name of the Church, by the power vested in me, accept the profession made by you in our Congregation family, and I strongly entrust you to God, so that by His power you can fulfil your sacred duties.

THE PROFESSING SISTER replies: Amen. – and goes back to her seat.

Or:

And I, in the name of the Church and our Family, accept your profession.
Faithful observance of these sacred vows will lead you to full communion with Christ.

THE PROFESSING SISTER replies: Amen. – and goes back to her seat.
